

2012 Accredited Courses and Therapies offered at Perseverance in Subtle Energy Medicine (Including Crystal and Energy Healing) & Stress Therapy

As from April 2012 Energy Medicine International will be offering Accredited Courses in Subtle Energy Medicine (Including Crystal and Energy Healing) & Stress Therapy at Perseverance in Richmond.

Subtle Energy Medicine (Inc Crystal and Energy Healing)

This part-time course runs over 14 weekends over a two year period. It is a course centred around working with crystals and energy on the human subtle energies, leading to an accredited qualification in Subtle Energy Medicine, Crystal and Energy Healing. Included within this is the use of colour, sound and flowers in healing. The course also includes deep self and spiritual development.

Stress Therapy Diploma

This course runs over a period of 16-18 months. There is a part-time attendance of seven weekends over a one year period with the remaining time being needed for the completion of all course work. The course works towards qualifying as a stress therapist, a qualification accredited by Energy Medicine International.

Energy Medicine Sessions

From March 2012 consultations in Subtle Energy Medicine, Crystal and Energy Healing Bach Flower Remedies and Stress Therapy will be offered by the Principal of Energy Medicine International Dr Gareth Thomas and a colleague Amanda Jones
